

Krishna Bansal is an entrepreneur, philanthropist and an active business/community leader based in Chicago, USA. He is the President and CEO of Q1 Technologies, Inc. (Q1Tech), a technology and services company that he founded in 2002. Headquartered in Chicago Area. his company has worked with educational institutions, governments and fortune 500 corporations with complex technology and improving global operations. Q1Tech is also bringing the same level IT experience available to fortune companies to the local Small and Medium Businesses under the brand MyTecq.com

Bansal believes in giving back to the community. As a volunteer, he is actively involved working for education, business & civic organizations. He has run for offices including District 204 School Board & Illinois State Assembly. His recent major public service involvement other than running for office of are:

- Planning and Zoning Commissioner - City of Naperville
- President – United States Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce(Midwest)
- Founding Chairman of City of Aurora Indian Community Outreach Advisory Board
- Chairman – Indian Community Outreach, Naperville Mayor’s office
- Director – Republican Hindu Coalition
- Vice Chairman - Indian Prairie Education Foundation (School District 204)
- Chair Technology Council & Board Member - Illinois Chamber of Commerce
- Board Member – Vishwa Jagriti Mission of North America and devoted to helping homeless and underprivileged children

Bansal has been instrumental in founding the Indian Community Outreach program to educate, integrate & empower Indian American community while making them part of mainstream American fabric. This program has been adopted by multiple cities in USA. Under his leadership many very large business, educational, civic and cultural events have been organized.

Bansal holds a master’s degree in Business Administration, an undergraduate degree in Business & Accounting and multiple technology certifications. Additionally, he and his company have won many awards by local and national organizations.

On a personal front Krishna and his wife have two daughters attending high school. Between swim meets, concerts, extra-curricular and other school activities, Krishna is an avid pilot and enjoys flying. He also loves travelling and has toured extensively across the globe.

Recent Accomplishments:

Business:

Started in 2002 by Krishna, Q1Tech ranked as the fastest growing business in USA for consecutive 3 years 2015, 2016 & 2017 by INC Magazine.

Ranked in Fast 100 by US Asian American Chamber of Commerce for 2016 & 2017.

Ranked in 10 Most Valuable Software Solution Provider by Insight Success in 2017.

Krishna Bansal was honored and awarded by The Technology Headlines as “50 Successful Indian Entrepreneurs in US.in 2017

Q1Tech was listed as one of the 30 Fastest Growing Technology Company in 2016 by Silicon Review.

Business Organizations:

Serve on the Board of Directors and Chair the Technology Council for Illinois State Chamber of Commerce to work on business policies and advice State Legislator and Governors office.

Lead the US Asian American Chamber of Commerce for the Midwest State comprising of seven States. Have been instrumental in organizing many business summits and programs helping connect Businesses with Large Corporate and Government.

Community:

Successfully organized India Day Parade and Celebration in Naperville – in 3 years this event has become the largest Indian American event of its kind with over 30,000 people attending this year.

Celebrated Diwali with a President Trump and close group at Oval Office White House – This is the first time Diwali was celebrated in the Oval Office.

Instrumental in formation of first ever Advisory Board by a major City dedicated to Indian Americans in America and officially celebrate Diwali.

Ran a very successful campaign in early 2017, eliminating the fear of hate crimes against Indian Americans.

Work with School District to Advice on Programs and help fund initiatives.

Philanthropy:

Deeply involved and support multiple organizations including related to Children / youth education / nourishment and elder care in India and United States.

Support cultural organizations and Temples for them to be able to preserve and show case Indian Culture and Religion in United States.

Has been generously contributing towards School District STEM programs.

Active member of Rotary Club of Naperville and contributes towards causes adopted by Rotary.

Government:

Appointed as the Commissioner for Planning and Zoning for Naperville. Conducts hearing for cases needing reviews and exceptions.

Appointed Ambassador by Naperville City for Indian American Community to help outreach to the communities.

Instrumental in formation of first Indian American advisory board by any city in United States. Was appointed as the founding Chairman of City of Aurora Indian Advisory Board.